Speakers:

Session 1: Adventures in the Real World – John Malam

John Malam talks about the value of information texts as aids to learning and literacy. John is a non-fiction author and National Literacy Trust Reading Champion.

Session 2: Bringing Books to Life: Hooking Your Readers Through Drama - Dave Cryer

A hands-on session exploring Dave's use of drama to inspire young people to expand their fiction horizons. Dave works freelance, concentrating on promoting reading and writing for pleasure. He is a committee member for The Doncaster Book Award and has worked on many other book awards across the UK. More information can be found at www.davecryer.co.uk

Session 3: Author Talk – Anne Fine

An hour, including book signing, with multiple award winning author Anne Fine courtesy of Madeleine Lindley Ltd.

Session 4: School Librarians of the Year: Practical ideas to take away - Nikki Heath and Kevin Sheehan

Nikki Heath won the School Librarian of the Year award in 2008 for her inspirational work at Werneth School, Stockport. The awarding panel noted that "her passion for supporting students to become both confident, independent researchers and to read for pleasure is her driving force"

Kevin Sheehan from Offerton School, is the most recent holder of the title School Librarian of the Year (2010). The chair of the selection panel said "He makes his library fun; he goes beyond the book to entice pupils in and demands that they respect the space so that it has become highly valued."
