

COMPANY NOT HAVING A SHARE CAPITAL

Articles of Association for a Charitable Company

Articles of Association of School Library Association

(Adopted pursuant to a special resolution dated 21st June 2014)

1. The Company's name is The School Library Association

(and in this document it is called the 'Association').

Interpretation

2. In the Articles:

'address' means a postal address or, for the purposes of electronic communication, a fax number, an e-mail or postal address or a telephone number for receiving text messages in each case registered with the Association;

'the Articles' means the Association's Articles of association;

'the Association' means the company intended to be regulated by the Articles;

'clear days' in relation to the period of a notice means a period excluding:

the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given; and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect;

'the Commission' means the Companies Acts (as defined in section 2 of the Companies Act 2006) insofar as they apply to the Association;

'the Directors' means the Directors of the Association. The Directors are charity trustees as defined by section 177 of the Charities Act 2011;

'document' includes, unless otherwise specified, any document sent or supplied in electronic form;

'electronic form' has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006;

'the memorandum' means the Association's memorandum of association;

'officers' includes the Directors and the secretary (if any); 'the seal' means the common seal of the Association if it has one;

'secretary' means any person appointed to perform the duties of the secretary of the Association;

'the United Kingdom' means Great Britain and Northern Ireland; and Words importing one gender shall include all genders, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa.

Unless the context otherwise requires words or expressions contained in the Articles having as in the Companies Acts but excluding any statutory modification not in force when this constitution becomes binding on the Association.

Apart from the exception mentioned in the previous paragraph a reference to an Act of Parliament includes any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force.

Liability of Members

3. Every Member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association, in the event of the same being wound up while he is a Member, or within one year after he ceases to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before he ceases to be a Member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding Fifty pence.

Objects

4. The Association's objects ('Objects') are specifically restricted to the following:
 - 4.1 to encourage for educational and recreational ends the provision organisation and use of libraries in schools and colleges;
 - 4.2 to advise on the training and qualifications of school librarians, to establish courses and other forms of training in school librarianship and to award diplomas and other certificates of competence therein provided always that no diploma or certificates issued by the Association shall contain any statement expressing or implying that it is granted by or under the authority of the Department for Education or any other government department or authority;
 - 4.3 to provide and maintain libraries for the purpose of promoting the objects of the Association;
 - 4.4 to print, publish and distribute books, magazines, periodicals, and publications of all kinds with a view to promoting the objects of the Association, and in particular to print and publish the periodical known as "The School Librarian".

Powers

5. The Association has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the Association has power:
 - 5.1 to raise funds; in doing so, the Association must not undertake any taxable permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
 - 5.2 to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

- 5.3 to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Association; in exercising this power, the Association must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 122 of the Charities Act 2011;
- 5.4 to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Association as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation; the Association must comply as appropriate with sections 124-126 of the Charities Act 2011, if it wishes to mortgage land:
- 5.5 to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;
- 5.6 to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects;
- 5.7 to acquire, merge with or to enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity;
- 5.8 to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
- 5.9 to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Association. The Association may employ or remunerate a Director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by Article 7 and provided it complies with the conditions in that Article;
- 5.10 to:
 - (a) deposit or invest funds;
 - (b) employ a professional fund-manager; and
 - (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the Association to be held in the name of a nominee;in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do so by the Trustee Act 2000;
- 5.11 to provide indemnity insurance for the Directors in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011;
- 5.12 to pay out of the funds of the Association the costs of forming and registering the Association both as a company and as a charity.

Application of income and property

- 6.1 The income and property of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

- 6.2 (a) a Director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Association or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Association;
- (b) a Director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Association's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011;
- (c) a Director may receive an indemnity from the Association in the circumstances specified in Article 43;
- (d) a Director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by Article 7.
- 6.3 Subject to Article 7, none of the income or property of the Association may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Member of the Association. This does not prevent a Member who is not also a Director receiving:
- (a) a benefit from the Association in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Association;
- (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Association.

Benefits and payments to Association Directors and connected persons

- 7.1 No Director or connected person may:
- (a) buy any goods or services from the Association on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Association;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Association;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Association;

unless the payment is permitted by Article 7.2, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.

In this Article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

- 7.2 (a) a Director or connected person may receive a benefit from the Association in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Association provided that a majority of the Directors do not benefit in this way;
- (b) a Director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Association where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011;

- (c) subject to Article 7.3 a Director or connected person may provide the Association with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Association by the Director or connected person;
- (d) a Director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Association at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate);
- (e) a Director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the Director or connected person to the Association. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The Director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion;
- (f) a Director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Association on the same terms as members of the public.

7.3 The Association and its Directors may only rely upon the authority provided by Article 7.2 (c) if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the Association or its Directors (as the case may be) and the Director or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Association;
- (b) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question;
- (c) the other Directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Association to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Director or connected person. In reaching that decision the Directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a Director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so;
- (d) the supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Association;
- (e) the supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting;
- (f) the reason for their decision is recorded by the Directors in the minute book;
- (g) a majority of the Directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by this Article 7.

7.4 In Articles 7.2 and 7.3:

- (a) 'charity' includes any company in which the Association:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more Directors to the board of the company.
- (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition in Article 47 'Interpretation'.

Declaration of Directors' interests

8. A Director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Association or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Association which has not previously been declared. A Director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity Directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Association and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

- 9.1 If a conflict of interests arises for a Director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles, the unconflicted Directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
- (a) the conflicted Director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
 - (b) the conflicted Director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting; and
 - (c) the unconflicted Directors consider it is in the interests of the Association to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.
- 9.2 In this Article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a Director or to a connected person.

Members

- 10.1 The subscribers to the memorandum were the first Members of the Association.
- 10.2 Membership is open to individuals (Personal Members), and to persons nominated by schools, public authorities and other educational bodies and interested organisations (Nominated Members) who:

- (a) apply to the Association in the form required by the Directors; and
 - (b) are approved by the Directors.
- 10.3
- (a) the Directors may refuse an application for Membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the Association to refuse the application;
 - (b) the Directors must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision;
 - (c) the Directors must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The Directors' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.
- 10.4 Membership is not transferable.
- 10.5 The Directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the Members.

Classes of Membership

- 11.1 The Directors may establish classes of Membership with different rights and obligations and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of Members.
- 11.2 The rights attached to a class of Membership may only be varied if:
- (a) three-quarters of the Members of that class consent in writing to the variation; or
 - (b) a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the Members of that class agreeing to the variation.
- 11.3 The provisions of the Articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class of Members.

Termination of Membership

12. Membership is terminated if:
- (a) the Member dies or, if it is an organisation, ceases to exist;
 - (b) the Member resigns by written notice to the Association unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two Members;
 - (c) any sum due from the Member to the Association is not paid in full within six months of it falling due;
 - (d) the Member is removed from Membership by a resolution of the Directors that it is in the best interests of the Association that his or her or its Membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a Member from Membership may only be passed if:

- (i) the Member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the Directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;
- (ii) the Member or, at the option of the Member, the Member's representative (who need not be a Member of the Association) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting;
- (iii) being a Nominated Member the organisation which made the nomination gives written notice to the Association that such nomination has been withdrawn.

Branches

- 13.1 in Order to give opportunities for Members resident within the same area to meet together and in general to promote the Objects of the Association within such area a Branch may be formed with the approval of the Directors of the Association, upon such number of Members as the board may from time to time determine, requesting that a Branch be formed. The rules of each Branch shall be approved by the Directors of the Association and shall include; the constitution, powers and functions of the Branch in relation to the Association, the election of the officers and committee of management of the Branch, the expenditure of the funds of the Association with the Branch; the preparation of annual accounts of the Branch and the submission of the same to the Directors of the Association.
- 13.2 The Directors shall define the geographical area of each Branch and may from time to time vary the same as they shall deem expedient. All Members of the Association resident within the area of a Branch shall be entitled to be Members of the Branch.

General Meetings

- 14.1 An annual general meeting must be held in each year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.
- 14.2 The Directors may call a general meeting at any time.

Notice of general meetings

- 15.1 The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Association are:
 - (a) twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution;
 - (b) fourteen clear days for all other general meetings.
- 15.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 per cent of the total voting rights.

- 15.3 The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of Members to appoint a proxy number section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and Article 20.
- 15.4 The notice must be given to all the Members and to the Directors and auditors.
- 15.5. The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Association.

Proceedings at general meetings

- 16.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 16.2 A quorum is:
- (a) seven Members (not counting any Honorary Members) present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting; or
 - (b) one per cent of the total Membership at the time;
- whichever is the greater.
- 16.3 If:
- (a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or
 - (b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present;
- the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the Directors shall determine.
- 16.4 The Directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
- 16.5 If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the Members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.
- 17.1 General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors.
- 17.2 If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a Director nominated by the Directors shall chair the meeting.
- 17.3 If there is only one Director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

- 17.4 If no Director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 18.1 The Members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- 18.2 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.
- 18.3 No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- 18.4 If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the Members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
- 19.1 Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:
- (a) by the person chairing the meeting; or
 - (b) by at least two Members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) by a Member or Members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 19.2 (a) the declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded;
- (b) the result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the Association but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded;
- 19.3 (a) a demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting;
- (b) if the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 19.4 (a) a poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll;
- (b) the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 19.5 (a) a poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately;

- (b) a poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place who is chairing the meeting directs;
- (c) the poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded;
- (d) if the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken;
- (e) if a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting;

Content of proxy notices

- 20.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a 'proxy notice') which-
- (a) states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy;
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and
 - (d) is delivered to the Association in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 20.2 The Association may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 20.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 20.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as -
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

Delivery of proxy notices

- 21.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Association by or on behalf of that person.
- 21.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Association a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

- 21.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 21.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Written resolutions

- 22.1 A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:
- (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible Member;
 - (b) a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of Members has signified its agreement to the resolution; and
 - (c) it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
- 22.2 A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more Members have signified their agreement.
- 22.3 In the case of a Member which is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement.

Votes of Members

- 23.1 (a) subject to this Article, to Article 11, and to any specific rights attaching to any class of Membership, every Member, other than an Honorary Member, shall have one vote. For the avoidance of doubt an Honorary Member may attend a general meeting of the Association (including an annual general meeting) but may not vote at the meeting;
- (b) a Member shall not be entitled to vote if any sum due to the Association by way of subscription from the Member is overdue at the date of the meeting.
- 23.2 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.
- 23.3 Any organisation which is a Member of the Association may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Association. The organisation must give written notice to the Association of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the Association. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Association. Any notice given to the Association will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Association shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation.

Directors

- 24.1 A Director must be a natural person aged 16 or older.
- 24.2 No one may be appointed a Director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 28.
- 24.3 The minimum number of Directors shall be 12 but (unless otherwise determined by ordinary (resolution) shall not be subject to any maximum.
- 24.4 A Director may not appoint an alternate Director or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the Directors.

Powers of Directors

- 25.1 The Directors shall manage the business of the Association and may exercise all the powers of the Association unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, the Articles or any special resolution.
- 25.2 No alteration of the Articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the Directors.
- 25.3 Any meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Directors.

Retirement of Directors

- 26.1 At each annual general meeting one-third of the Directors or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third, must retire from office. If there is only one Director he or she must retire.
- 26.2 The Directors to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment. If any Directors become or were appointed Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.
- 26.3 If a Director is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of the Articles the retirement shall take effect upon the conclusion of the meeting.

Appointment of Directors

- 27.1 The Association may by ordinary resolution:
 - (a) appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director; and
 - (b) determine the rotation in which any additional Directors are to retire.

- 27.2 No person other than a Director retiring by rotation may be appointed a Director at any general meeting unless:
- (a) he or she is recommended for re-election by the Directors; or
 - (b) not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date of the meeting, the Association is given a notice that:
 - (i) is signed by a Member entitled to vote at the meeting;
 - (ii) states the Member's intention to propose the appointment of a person as a Director;
 - (iii) contains the details that, if the person were to be appointed, the Association would have to file at Companies House; and
 - (iv) is signed by the person who is to be proposed to show his or her willingness to be appointed.
- 27.3 All Members who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting must be given not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a Director other than a Director who is to retire by rotation.
- 27.4 The Directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director.
- 27.5 A Director appointed by a resolution of the other Directors must retire at the next annual general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation.
- 27.6 The appointment of a Director, whether by the Association in general meeting or by the other Directors, must not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of Directors.

Committee of Management and Length of Service

- 28.1 At the Annual General Meeting in each year there shall be elected, to serve during the following year:
- a Chairperson;
 - a Vice-Chairperson;
 - an Honorary Treasurer;
- together referred to in these Articles as the Committee of Management. No one shall be eligible to one of these positions unless they have already been a Director of the Association for at least one year. For the avoidance of doubt the people elected to these positions shall be Directors of the Association and no person who is not, or who ceases to be a Director, shall continue to hold any such position.
- 28.2 A person who comes to the end of their term of office as Chairperson and who (by reason of Article 28.3 below) is not eligible to serve for a further term, "a Past Chairperson”, shall be invited to remain a member of the Committee of Management for a further year.

28.3 At the end of their year of office a member of the Committee of Management shall be eligible for re election to the same position but so that:

no person shall serve as Chairperson or as Vice- Chairperson for more than two consecutive years;

no person shall serve as Honorary Treasurer for more than five consecutive years;

no person shall serve as Past Chairman for more than two consecutive years.

Disqualification and removal of Directors

28 A Director shall cease to hold office if he or she:

- (a) ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision in the Companies Acts or is prohibited by law from being a Director;
- (b) is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of sections 178 and 179 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of those provisions);
- (c) ceases to be a Member of the Association;
- (d) in the written opinion, given to the Association, of a registered medical practitioner treating that person, has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;
- (e) resigns as a Director by notice to the Association (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or
- (f) is absent without the permission of the Directors from all their meetings held within a period of six consecutive months and the Directors resolve that his or her office be vacated

Remuneration of Directors

29 The Directors must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by Article 7.

Proceedings of Directors

30.1 The Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the Articles.

30.2 Any Director may call a meeting of the Directors.

- 30.3 The secretary (if any) must call a meeting of the Directors if requested to do so by a Director.
- 30.4 Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.
- 30.5 In the case of an equality of votes, the person who is chairing the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- 30.6 A meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the Directors in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.
- 30.7 No decision may be made by a meeting of the Directors unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made. 'Present' includes being present by suitable electronic means agreed by the Directors in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants.
- 30.8 The quorum shall be five or the number nearest to one-third of the total number of Directors, whichever is the greater, or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the Directors.
- 30.9 A Director shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that Director is not entitled to vote.
- 30.10 If the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Directors or Director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
- 31.1 The Directors shall appoint a Director to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment.
- 31.2 If no-one has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Directors present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.
- 31.3 The person appointed to chair meetings of the Directors shall have no functions or powers except those conferred by the Articles or delegated to him or her by the Directors.
- 32 A resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by all of the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Directors and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly convened and held. The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more Directors has signified their agreement.

Delegation

- 33.1 The Directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more Directors but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book.

- 33.2 The Directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:
- (a) the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;
 - (b) no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the Association except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the Directors.
- 33.3 The Directors may revoke or alter a delegation.
- 33.4 All acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the Directors.

Validity of Directors' decisions

- 34.1 Subject to Article 34.2, all acts done by a meeting of Directors, or of a committee of Directors, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a Director:
- (a) who was disqualified from holding office;
 - (b) who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
 - (c) who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interests or otherwise;

if without:

- (d) the vote of that Director; and
- (e) that Director being counted in the quorum;

the decision has been made by a majority of the Directors at a quorate meeting.

- 34.2 Article 34.1 does not permit a Director or a connected person to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the Directors or of a committee of Directors if, but for Article 34.1, the resolution would have been void, or if the Director has not complied with Article 8.

Seal

- 35 If the Association has a seal it must only be used by the authority of the Directors or of a committee of Directors authorised by the Directors. The Directors may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by a Director and by the secretary (if any) or by a second Director.

Minutes

36. The Directors must keep minutes of all:

- (a) appointments of officers made by the Directors;
- (b) proceedings at meetings of the Association;
- (c) meetings of the Directors and committees of Directors including:
 - (i) the names of the Directors present at the meeting;
 - (ii) the decisions made at the meetings; and
 - (iii) where appropriate the reasons for the decisions.

Accounts

37.1 The Directors must prepare for each financial year accounts as required by the Companies Acts. The accounts must be prepared to show a true and fair view and follow accounting standards issued or adopted by the Accounting Standards Board or its successors and adhere to the recommendations of applicable Statements of Recommended Practice.

37.2 The Directors must keep accounting records as required by the Companies Act.

Annual Report and Return and Register of Charities

38.1 The Directors must comply with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 with regard to the:

- (a) transmission of a copy of the statements of account to the Commission;
- (b) preparation of an Annual Report and the transmission of a copy of it to the Commission;
- (c) preparation of an Annual Return and its transmission to the Commission.

38.2 The Directors must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the Association's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

Means of communication to be used

39.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Association under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Association.

39.2 Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

40. Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles:

- (a) must be in writing; or
- (b) must be given in electronic form.

- 41.1 The Association may give any notice to a Member either:
- (a) personally; or
 - (b) by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the Member at his or her address; or
 - (c) by leaving it at the address of the Member; or
 - (d) by giving it in electronic form to the Member's address
 - (e) by placing the notice on a website and providing the person with a notification in writing or in electronic form of the presence of the notice on the website. The notification must state that it concerns a notice of a company meeting and must specify the place date and time of the meeting.
- 41.2 A Member who does not register an address with the Association or who registers only a postal address that is not within the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the Association.
- 41.3 A Member present in person at any meeting of the Association shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and of the purposes for which it was called.
- 42.1 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.
- 42.2 Proof that an electronic form of notice was given shall be conclusive where the company can demonstrate that it was properly addressed and sent, in accordance with section 1147 of the Companies Act 2006.
- 42.3 In accordance with section 1147 of the Companies Act 2006 notice shall be deemed to be given:
- (a) 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted; or
 - (b) in the case of an electronic form of communication, 48 hours after it was sent.

Indemnity

- 43.1 The Association may indemnify a relevant Director against any liability incurred in that capacity, to the extent permitted by sections 232 and 234 of the Companies Act 2006.
- 43.2 In this Article a 'relevant Director' means any Director or former Director of the Association.

Rules

- 44.1 The Directors may from time to time make such reasonable and proper rules or bye laws as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the Association.

- 44.2 The bye laws may regulate the following matters but are not restricted to them:
- (a) the admission of Members of the Association (including the admission of organisations to Membership) and the rights and privileges of such Members, and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by Members;
 - (b) the conduct of Members of the Association in relation to one another, and to the Association's employees and volunteers;
 - (c) the setting aside of the whole or any part or parts of the Association's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;
 - (d) the procedure at general meetings and meetings of the Directors in so far as such procedure is not regulated by the Companies Acts or by the Articles;
 - (e) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.
- 44.3 The Association in general meeting has the power to alter, add to or repeal the rules or bye laws.
- 44.4 The Directors must adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring the rules and bye laws to the notice of Members of the Association.
- 44.5 The rules or bye laws shall be binding on all Members of the Association. No rule or bye law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Articles.

Disputes

- 45 If a dispute arises between Members of the Association about the validity or propriety of anything done by the Members of the Association under these Articles, and the dispute cannot be resolved by agreement, the parties to the dispute must first try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation before resorting to litigation.

Dissolution

- 46 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having object similar to the Objects of the Association, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their Members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of these Articles, such institution or institutions to be determined by Members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect can not be given to such provision, then to some charitable object.

Interpretation

47 In Article 7, Article 9.2 and Article 34.2 'connected person' means:

- (a) a child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister of the Director;
- (b) the spouse or civil partner of the Director or of any person falling within sub-clause (a) above;
- (c) a person carrying on business in partnership with the Director or with any person falling within sub-clause (a) or (b) above;
- (d) an institution which is controlled-
 - (i) by the Director of any connected person falling within sub-clause (a), (b), or (c) above; or
 - (ii) by two or more persons falling within sub-clause (d) (i), when taken together
- (e) a body corporate in which-
 - (i) the Director or any connected person falling within sub-clauses (a) to (c) has a substantial interest; or
 - (ii) two or more persons falling within sub-clause (e)(i) who, when taken together, have a substantial interest;
 - (iii) Sections 350 - 352 of the Charities Act 2011 apply for the purposes of interpreting the terms used in this Article.
