

Information Book Award 2019: Category 7–12

The atlas of heroes by Sandra Lawrence and Stuart Hill

English

- Read popular myths and legends from around the world
- Create and describe your own superhero
- Rewrite a popular myth and change the ending
- Write a playscript of your favourite part of a well-known myth
- Write a set of instructions on how to make a superhero
- Create an advert to persuade others to buy your superhero products
- Hot-seating different heroes
- Write some superhero slogans for advertising purposes

Maths

- Worded problems involving time, money and measurement around heroes theme
- Use directional language to guide a hero to its mission
- Use your knowledge of 2D and 3D shapes to create your super hero
- Create a table to show facts on each hero that Aunt Helena met
- Co-ordinates which locate where your hero has to go

Science

- Identify that humans and animals need the right types of types and amounts of nutrition to stay strong and healthy
- Know that humans and some animals have skeletons and muscles for support, protection and movement

History/Geography

- Locate on a map where different heroes from around the world came from
- On a map, plot the trail of Aunt Helena's journey
- Look at the flags of each country
- Select 10 heroes from the book and present them on a timeline
- Compare and contrast two areas that Aunt Helena visited

Art/DT

- Create your own patterns similar to the ones that Aunt Helena saw written in the sands
- Understand and study North American art and compare to Aboriginal art

Music/Dance

- Listen to signature tunes of different superheroes, and create your own for your hero
- Listen to popular genres of music from the countries that Aunt Helena visited
- Move like a hero, running quickly, developing gymnastic skills

ICT

- Digital research – use the internet to research information on some of the heroes that Aunt Helena discovered and present the information in Powerpoint, using wordart, images and videos
- Digital media – use digital media to enhance a presentation

RE/PSHE

- Identify real life heroes in religion
- Know what qualities are needed to be a hero
- We are all different: what makes each of us a superhero?