

Children's Book Quiz

Children don't tend to drink coffee, but there are plenty of examples of tea parties in children's books. How many do you know?

Question number	Question	Answer – Book title and author
1	Which important figure is missing from this tea party?
2	It's Bernard's birthday party. Who is his best friend?
3	Who is the distinctive author and illustrator for this book?
4	Tea in the sugar bowl & Chocolate cake are two poems by which poet?
5	Mr Grinling loves his food, whether that is first thing in the morning or later in the day. What are the books?
6	This dog got up to a lot of mischief. What was his name?

7	The doorbell rings just as Sophie and her Mummy are sitting down for tea. Who is there?
8	This looks a fun tea party. Who is the main guest?
9	Be our guest! Be our guest! Put our service to the test Tie your napkin 'round your neck, cherie And we'll provide the rest. Ok, not in the original book, but who sang this in the film?
10	Whose birthday was it?
11	Old, but still in print, who was the little girl? In an old house in Paris That is covered in vines, Live twelve little girls In two straight lines.
12	In the nursery rhyme, who put the kettle on?

You can donate directly to Macmillan here:

<https://donation.macmillan.org.uk/>

#MacmillanCoffeeMorning